

WORLD LANGUAGE CREDIT

for Central Kitsap School District Students

Test Dates: Wednesday, April 14 or 21, 2021

Registration: March 29, 2021

Can you fluently read, write, speak, and listen in a language other than English?

If you are a student in grades 8 through 12 in Central Kitsap School District, you can earn high school credit in a world language by successfully passing district-approved assessments and demonstrating your language proficiency in listening, speaking, reading, and writing in the language.

Assessments are available for many different world languages, and every effort will be made to provide assessments in any language requested.

Are you ready to take this test?

Students should reflect on whether or not they are ready to sit for the test. They should review the "I can..." statements on the student FAQ documents as well as visit the link at www.actfl.org to self assess if they have the level of proficiency needed to complete the test.

What is the benefit for taking this test?

Students will earn: proficiency-based high school credits, may meet the world language credit requirement for graduation, and may qualify for the Seal of Biliteracy on their diploma.

How many credits can you earn by demonstrating proficiency?

Students will be able to earn up to four credits, depending upon the level of proficiency they demonstrate on the assessments in reading, writing, listening, and/or speaking. Since credits will be awarded based on the lowest level of proficiency demonstrated across the skill areas, it is important that students have strong skills in all four areas.
